River of HOPE

LUTHERAN CHURCH
We go out to transform lives through Jesus Christ.

Rebuilding

Jesus meets us on the road, whether we recognize him or not. It's a miracle, really.

Welcome. We are so glad you are in worship at River of Hope today.

Come as you are. Well, you're already here. We don't care what clothes you wear or what kind of shape your spiritual life is in. God meets you and loves you where you are.

Where everybody knows your name? We all wear name tags each week - not just the visitors. Even when we think we know everyone at River of Hope, it's simply not true. These name tags are our awkwardly friendly way to help us stick out our hand, say, "hello, you're new to me" and practice being the friendly church everyone swears we are. If we practice this awkward move here, we've got a shot at actually doing it in our everyday lives.

We like kids. No kidding. We think kids are leaders in worship and lives of faith. Just look around you.

Nursery care. Weeping and gnashing of teeth? There is a "cry room" available outside the worship area. The "Pray Ground," located in the worship space, is for those younger than kindergarten age.

Communion. You are welcome, without exception. If you are hungry and thirsty for unbounded grace, mercy, and forgiveness through Jesus Christ, you are welcome at Christ's table.

Connection Cards. For visitors and regulars to communicate. We won't use your info to bother you. We promise.

Worship Style. We are an intentional intergenerational community. "Sunday School" happens within worship! We sing hymns, we sing songs. We pray ancient words and words that are new to us. We actively practice faith during worship. Sometimes it's beautiful. Sometimes it's awkward. Sometimes it's both. It always "counts" as worship. Then we try it again next week. We are a pro-participation, anti-excellence community.

River Conditions

Happy Easter Hopeful Ones,

Jim Wallis, the Editor of Sojourner's Magazine has this to say about hope: "Hope unbelieved is always considered nonsense. But hope believed is history in the process of being changed." The Easter story is one of disbelief in the wake of grief. The women head to the tomb and are asked by two men in blazing white, why are you looking for the living among the dead?" When they head back to tell the other disciples, they accuse the women of telling an idle tale. They call BS. And, I guess, who can blame them? After all they've experienced in watching Jesus be killed. After all they've experienced in deserting their friend and teacher. How on earth could what the women have seen been anything but a fairy tale?

This is how the Good News is often received - have you noticed? Like it's too good to be true. Like free root beer floats offered to often incredulous people. Or an open communion table for all those hungry or thirsty for mercy through Jesus. Or help paying for laundry. People just can't believe it. They think maybe we've got a big old string attached.

We cannot be discouraged. The women obviously weren't. And neither were the men, once they went and saw it for themselves. Because we know the reality of this hope in Jesus and we know it does not disappoint. In fact, this hope sets things in motion. Hope is the fuel of change, of transformation. It's what kicks you in the pants to keep you going. It's what comforts you in the dark of night. This is the hope, echoing out of an empty tomb, that nothing will ever be the same again. Love has won.

Happy Easter. Now go and share this love with people in unbelievable ways.

River of Hope Lutheran Church

We are the ELCA church in town. We are a purposely intergenerational community who is following Jesus out of the building and into the world where we live. We are learners (disciples) and practice-ers. Worship is a safe place to practice a dangerous gospel. And, believe us, it takes practice. Your questions, critical thinking, doubts and imperfect lives are welcome here. In fact, no matter your status in society (divorced, never-been-to-church, gay, straight, old, young, cranky, liberal, conservative, questioning, allergic-to-church, snarky) you'll be welcomed here. Then you'll be sent out, to live your life, transformed by Jesus Christ. And we believe, through the love of Jesus, you'll help to transform other lives.

IF YOU KEEP UP WITH BRANDS,
THEN YOU SHOULD KNOW WE ARE PART OF THE
EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN
CHURCH IN AMERICA (ELCA).
WE'RE PRETTY PLEASED ABOUT THIS.

Our purpose as a church:

We go out to transform lives through Jesus Christ.

Our Guiding Principles:

(Disciple = learner)

God is God and we are not.

We are called to grow together as disciples: to forgive, to teach, to love.

Disciples are inspired by the Holy Spirit to take risks.

Disciples seek God's justice.

Disciples serve with no strings attached.

Disciples invite and welcome through loving acceptance.

We meet you where you are.
