Welcome 101

Welcome. We are so glad you are in worship at River of Hope today.

Come as you are. Well, you're already here. We don't care what clothes you wear or what kind of shape your spiritual life is in. God meets you and loves you where you are.

Where everybody knows your name? We all wear name tags each week - not just the visitors. Even when we think we know everyone at River of Hope, it's simply not true. These name tags are our awkwardly friendly way to help us stick out our hand, say, "hello, you're new to me" and practice being the friendly church everyone swears we are. If we practice this awkward move here, we've got a shot at actually doing it in our everyday lives.

We like kids. No kidding. We think kids are leaders in worship and lives of faith. Just look around you.

Nursery care. Weeping and gnashing of teeth? Nursery care is available just outside the worship area.

Communion. You are welcome, without exception. If you are hungry and thirsty for unbounded grace, mercy, and forgiveness through Jesus Christ, you are welcome at Christ's table.

Connection Cards. For visitors and regulars to communicate. We won't use your info to bother you. We promise.

Worship Style. We are an intentional intergenerational community. We sing hymns, we sing songs. We pray ancient words and words that are new to us. We actively practice faith during worship. Sometimes it's beautiful. Sometimes it's awkward. Sometimes it's both. It always "counts" as worship. Then we try it again next week. We are a pro-participation, anti-excellence community.

River Conditions

Dear Hopeful People,

Sufjan Stevens is a favorite musician I listen to and he just released a song called "No Shade in the Shadow of the Cross." No, it's not a Christian song, per se. It's not praise music. I'm not sure what it's about, but the lyrics point to life that is messy. The last line of the song is the title - no shade in the shadow of the cross. Which is about right, if you let that title and song lyric sink in. We follow Jesus to the cross and even when the shadow of the cross falls over us, it is not a cool, relaxing shade we enjoy. It is the reality of faith: the cross casts a dark shadow. And there, we find life. We know darkness and hard times. And it's right there that we meet Jesus.

Without the cross, Jesus is just a devout Jew who made the government mad and fed the hungry. Without the cross, there is no Easter. You don't get to new life without dying first. You don't get to Easter without first betraying your closest friend, and then deserting him, and then, finally, watching him die.

So hear this plea: Don't skip holy week. Cuz you're skipping the cross, the hard and unpleasant stuff. Wherever you find yourself the week leading up to Easter, find a community to gather with that will mark this sacred time. It's what makes us Christian. Here is how you can gather here, in this community, to follow Jesus to the cross:

Communion Banquet Thursday, April 2: 7pm. At the RoH office. Bring 30 pieces of silver (any kind) and pieces for the Personal Care Kits. Jesus and his closest friends eat together one last time.

Good Friday April 3: 7pm at Vineyard United Methodist Church. We'll huddle together in the aftermath of the crucifixion.

Holy Saturday: Pray the 22nd Psalm or Psalm 51 today.

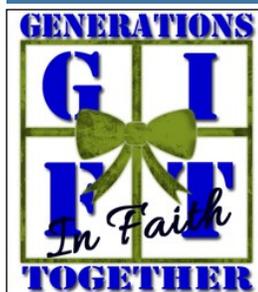

Easter Sunday: 10:30am - come and celebrate the risen Lord!

G.I.F.T. Worship

GENERATIONS IN FAITH TOGETHER.

River of Hope practices worship together with all generations, believing that faith and life are connected in a meaningful way when we worship together.

G.I.F.T. Worship is River of Hope's version of Sunday School for all ages. And it prepares us to go out into our lives, knowing Jesus Christ is transforming us and the world.

Give to River of Hope:

Giving your financial resources consistently means quite a lot to the health and life of River of Hope. What can you give? Each family's faithful consideration of this question is important. Help us plan for the future God is calling us into. Automatic giving (Simply Giving) is a simple yet incredible way to support River of Hope when you're in worship or away for the weekend. Set it up through our website www.riverofhopehutchinson.org or email River of Hope's Treasurer, Bev Mueller, at

BevM@businesswaresolutions.com to get the ball rolling.

Be a Hospitality Host at ROH Office!

Greet people, maybe even make 'em a cup of coffee. Answer the phone, read a good book. Come for an hour or the whole time. Sign up for your shift at the Connect Cart.

Disciple

Lent Daily and Weekly Practice:

+Prayer: pray through the book of Psalms throughout these 40 days.

+Almsgiving: Our community's goal is to make 100 "Personal Care Kits" to be assembled at Maundy-Thursday worship on Thursday, April 2.

+Fasting: Pick one day a week to limit or abstain from food, technology, buying anything.

Thursdays (Mar 26): Meet at Dunn Bros. from 7-8pm. Come and talk about how practice is going - get support, learn from each other.

Discipleship Groups:

Disciple means learner. We are life-time learners when it comes to living a life of faith. Be part of an intentional small group, a Discipleship Group, where you'll commit to monthly meetings, weekly readings, and to reflect on scripture as our story and God's story, intersecting.

All discipleship groups are full. Don't let this stop you! Email Pastor Laura your interest and we'll get another group going! Pastor Laura's email is: pastor@riverofhopehutchinson.org

Send

Common Cup - March Diaper Drive

It is River of Hope's month in MARCH to donate diapers to Common Cup. They are in desperate need and the most wanted sizes are the larger ones and the pull-ups. They can be brought to the church office or dropped off directly at the Common Cup office at 105 Second Ave. For any questions, contact Andy Koenig. Don't feel like shopping for them? A cash donation is most welcome also.

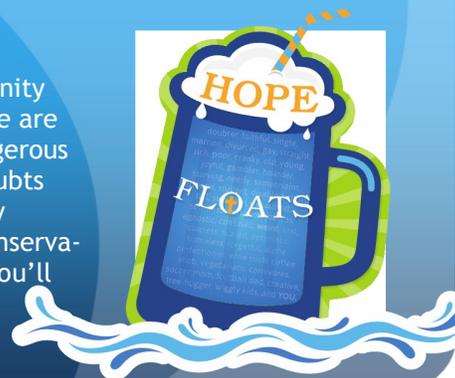

Hospice Volunteers Needed

Would you like to become a volunteer with Allina Health Hospice? Perhaps you know of a family member, a friend or a neighbor that has benefitted from hospice. Our current patients and families could use your support and companionship. All volunteers are provided with free training and a flexible schedule. The next training begins on Saturday, April 11. For information, call Pam Ainslie at 320-484-9211.

River of Hope Lutheran Church

We are the ELCA church in town. We are a purposely intergenerational community who is following Jesus out of the building and into the world where we live. We are learners (disciples) and practice-ers. Worship is a safe place to practice a dangerous gospel. And, believe us, it takes practice. Your questions, critical thinking, doubts and imperfect lives are welcome here. In fact, no matter your status in society (divorced, never-been-to-church, gay, straight, old, young, cranky, liberal, conservative, questioning, allergic-to-church, snarky) you'll be welcomed here. Then you'll be sent out, to live your life, transformed by Jesus Christ. And we believe, through the love of Jesus, you'll help to transform other lives.

Our purpose as a church:

We go out to transform lives through Jesus Christ.

Our Guiding Principles:

(Disciple = learner)

God is God and we are not.

We are called to grow together as disciples: to forgive, to teach, to love.

Disciples are inspired by the Holy Spirit to take risks.

Disciples seek God's justice.

Disciples serve with no strings attached.

Disciples invite and welcome through loving acceptance.

We meet you where you are.

IF YOU KEEP UP WITH BRANDS, THEN YOU SHOULD KNOW WE ARE PART OF THE EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN CHURCH IN AMERICA (ELCA).
WE'RE PRETTY PLEASED ABOUT THIS.
