River of HOPE

LUTHERAN CHURCH

We go out to transform lives through Jesus Christ.

Who Is God... [a series on Job]

July 17...when we find hope?

July 24...in this vast universe?

July 31...when our expectations are shattered?

Welcome. We are so glad you are in worship at River of Hope today.

Come as you are. Well, you're already here. We don't care what clothes you wear or what kind of shape your spiritual life is in. God meets you and loves you where you are.

Where everybody knows your name? We all wear name tags each week - not just the visitors. Even when we think we know everyone at River of Hope, it's simply not true. These name tags are our awkwardly friendly way to help us stick out our hand, say, "hello, you're new to me" and practice being the friendly church everyone swears we are. If we practice this awkward move here, we've got a shot at actually doing it in our everyday lives.

We like kids. No kidding. We think kids are leaders in worship and lives of faith. Just look around you.

Nursery care. Weeping and gnashing of teeth? There is a "cry room" available outside the worship area. The "Pray Ground," located in the worship space, is for those younger than kindergarten age.

Communion. You are welcome, without exception. If you are hungry and thirsty for unbounded grace, mercy, and forgiveness through Jesus Christ, you are welcome at Christ's table.

Connection Cards. For visitors and regulars to communicate. We won't use your info to bother you. We promise.

Worship Style. We are an intentional intergenerational community. "Sunday School" happens within worship! We sing hymns, we sing songs. We pray ancient words and words that are new to us. We actively practice faith during worship. Sometimes it's beautiful. Sometimes it's awkward. Sometimes it's both. It always "counts" as worship. Then we try it again next week. We are a pro-participation, anti-excellence community.

River Conditions

Dear Hopeful Ones,

We are in the book of Job through July and into the first week of August. This book does not recount historical actions of the man we know as Job (pronounced like "robe"). Instead, this story is one to teach us about who God is in our lives. If you pay attention to Job, and he's hard to miss as the one guy who all the bad stuff is happening to, you'll discover that he has one deep relationship with God and it involves questions and laments and despair and awe. All are elements of a life of faith.

Not too long ago, someone remarked to me that they wanted or needed to "get back to God." It's an interesting and honest thing to say, especially if you feel that you've left God or are distant from God. I know there are times for me when I feel far away from God, usually because I've not been attentive to my conversation or listening to God. The truth is this: God is never far from us, ever. God will not and does not leave us, even if we cannot see God. This is not meant to be taken as an affront or as an aggressive God that won't leave you alone. It is God's very nature to be faithful to us no matter the state of our hearts or lives.

Dive into the book of Job and you'll find a guy who suffers and finds new language and a new relationship with God. His friends who come to sit with him in his grief initially get it exactly right. They just sit and are with him, offering no words in the face of his tragedy. But then they mess it up by starting to talk and they talk way too much. Toward the end of the book, God credits only Job for speaking of God correctly. And, if you notice, Job doesn't speak a whole heckuva lot. Something to learn there about silence and communicating with God, isn't there?

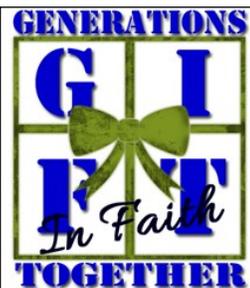

See if you can find yourself in this book. How can it encourage your life of faith, your discovering of who God is in your life when everything seems to be falling apart? How can this book help you find new ways to interact with God or to discover just who God is in your life? I think you'll be amazed at God's faithfulness to Job and to you.

Love,

Pastor Laura

River of Hope Lutheran Church

We are the ELCA church in town. We are a purposely intergenerational community who is following Jesus out of the building and into the world where we live. We are learners (disciples) and practice-ers. Worship is a safe place to practice a dangerous gospel. And, believe us, it takes practice. Your questions, critical thinking, doubts and imperfect lives are welcome here. In fact, no matter your status in society (divorced, never-been-to-church, gay, straight, old, young, cranky, liberal, conservative, questioning, allergic-to-church, snarky) you'll be welcomed here. Then you'll be sent out, to live your life, transformed by Jesus Christ. And we believe, through the love of Jesus, you'll help to transform other lives.

Our purpose as a church:

We go out to transform lives through Jesus Christ.

Our Guiding Principles:

(Disciple = learner)

God is God and we are not.

We are called to grow together as disciples: to forgive, to teach, to love.

Disciples are inspired by the Holy Spirit to take risks.

Disciples seek God's justice.

Disciples serve with no strings attached.

Disciples invite and welcome through loving acceptance.

We meet you where you are.
