

We Are An Offering

Lent 2018 Opportunities to Give

---

JEFF SCHMIDT – OUTREACH TO HOMELESS COMMUNITY IN MINNEAPOLIS

---

This Lent, River of Hope will collect items to support Jeff Schmidt's connection with the homeless community in Minneapolis/St. Paul. Jeff is a resident of Hutchinson and a teacher at the middle school and has a passion for this ministry. We are excited to help support this ministry that helps some of the most vulnerable people.

We will assemble all the items collected on Maundy-Thursday and then offer them to Jeff at Easter for this incredible life-giving ministry.

Our goal: 25 backpacks filled with the following items:

Backpacks should not be children's and can be new or used

Thermal socks

New underwear (women's and boxers for men)

ChapStick

Deodorant

Disposable razors

Hair brushes

Hair picks

Small tissue packages

Soap containers

Tampons

Toothbrush covers/cases

Wipes (small packs of 10 or so)

Washcloths

Large bars of soap

Powder (small or large)

Shaving cream (small or large)

Cash donations are always welcome