LUTHERAN CHURCH
7th Sunday in Easter--May 13, 2018

Our purpose as a church (it's why we exist):
We go out to transform lives through Jesus Christ.

Our Guiding Principles: (how we live together + make decisions)

(Disciple = learner)

God is God and we are not.

We are called to grow together as disciples: to forgive, to teach, to love.

Disciples are inspired by the Holy Spirit to take risks.

Disciples seek God's justice.

Disciples serve with no strings attached.

Disciples invite and welcome through loving acceptance.

We meet you where you are.

IF YOU KEEP UP WITH BRANDS, WE ARE PART OF THE EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN CHURCH IN AMERICA (ELCA). WE'RE PRETTY PLEASED ABOUT THIS.

River Conditions

Dear Hopeful People,

We are just rounding out the season of Easter and looking right into Pentecost - the season of the Holy Spirit. It's like each season of the church speaks into some aspect of our humanity and God's activity in it. From bringing new life out of something dead to stirring up God's amazing activity in all kinds of people in unexpected ways. The color of the Holy Spirit is red, which is the main reason I am drawn to the color. The Holy Spirit is always at work in our lives, regardless if we see it or not. It's not dependent on our noticing its work. So often, my faith is lived in the rear view mirror only recognizing that God was at work after the fact. But it doesn't lessen the impact or negate the change brought about by its work. After all, God is God and we are not.

So I wonder, where do you see God alive in your life? How is God bringing new life out of a dead situation? How is the Holy Spirit blowing through and spinning you in new directions? Both the Vision and River Tables have begun an adventure of reading together a book entitled, "Canoeing the Mountains." It's a look at the church facing uncharted territory through the lens of the Lewis and Clark expeditions. They set off west expecting and prepared for a waterway. What they got were the Rocky Mountains. Whoa. So we'll be reading this book with this story as our working metaphor and River of Hope as our living, breathing experiment of being church together.

Stick around. It's gonna get good.

I love you, because Christ loves you.

Pastor Laura
