LUTHERAN CHURCH
13th Sunday after Pentecost--August 19, 2018

Our purpose as a church (it's why we exist):
We go out to transform lives through Jesus Christ.

Our Guiding Principles: (how we live together + make decisions)

(Disciple = learner)

God is God and we are not.

We are called to grow together as disciples: to forgive, to teach, to love.

Disciples are inspired by the Holy Spirit to take risks.

Disciples seek God's justice.

Disciples serve with no strings attached.

Disciples invite and welcome through loving acceptance.

We meet you where you are.

IF YOU KEEP UP WITH BRANDS, WE ARE PART OF THE EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN CHURCH IN AMERICA (ELCA). WE'RE PRETTY PLEASED ABOUT THIS.

Dear Hopeful People,

River Conditions

Sabbatical time was just as I imagined it and nothing like what I imagined it would be. As I said in this space before I left, I believed this time to be God-timed, and indeed, that is what was revealed to me in spades. When what fills your time changes, so does everything else. I found myself praying for River of Hope and for specific people in new, freeing ways. I found scripture speaking to me in new ways. I rested. I read books for ministry and books for my imagination and books for my learning. Books! I took Facebook off of my phone and found that, yes indeed, I DO have time to read actual books. I took deep dives into some lectures and podcasts that had me scribbling notes in my Bible and in notebooks. I took naps. I took walks. I kayaked. I spent time with family. I ended this time with my pastoral leadership cohort on a 24 hour retreat where one of my colleagues remarked, "The Lord has blessed you with this time." Out of my prayer and scripture reading, out of the disruption of my regular schedule, out of the time to breathe in and out with my family came these realities:

- My call to ministry and to River of Hope remains steadfast not because of our great faithfulness to God but because of God's faithfulness to us.
- The world believes in the Gospel of scarcity: there is not enough time, money, food, or trust. The Gospel's reality is abundance: there is enough - you are enough.
- Forgiveness is a moving, breathing flow of life, rooted in our identity in Christ. Will we freely give others what has freely been given to us?
- So often, Christianity is lived as a transaction: "someone, somewhere, did something for you and you should be grateful." Instead, what if we lived it as "everything you've ever search for you've had the whole time!" It's the power of God's grace. We are re-planters of grace we receive. Will we pass it on?
- There are no spiritual dead ends for God.
- Upper Michigan is beautiful. Sheetrock is heavy. Music is good.

I am different upon returning home. River of Hope is different too. I am grateful for Jim Nelson and Sara Wilke for their faithful leadership while I was gone. I could not have been gone without their support and talent. Thank you also to those River of Hope-ers who faithfully preached and led worship. It's so important for the Good News to be shared by all of us. I continue to be prayerful and excited about what we will do together to share this amazing love of Jesus together.

In faith, hope, and love,

Pastor Laura
