

Did'ja Know?

The word "repent" comes from the old French "repentir." And that old French word came from Latin. We get lots of our words this way!

Color That Stuff

Another story about a fig tree and another fig tree coloring page! Look at the giant fig! What do you think that would be like to eat?!

Luke 13: 1-9

Some people came to Jesus very upset.

"Jesus," one woman said, "terrible things are happening to some of our people!"

A man looked scared. "Is it because they don't listen to God?"

Jesus shook his head. "Sometimes bad things happen to people. It's not their fault."

"Really?" asked a woman. "Aren't we supposed to listen to God so bad things don't happen to us?"

"That's not the reason," Jesus said. He smiled at the people. "God wants you to listen so that you learn to show God's love to others."

The woman thought about it. "We could all love God and show God's love to others," she said. "That would make things better for everyone."

"Exactly," said Jesus.

To Repent

To turn away from sin. To see that God is always calling us back to follow God's ways.

PICTURE IT — TAKE 2

Jesus loves to tell stories, especially to kids! Color the picture below and then write a story you think he's telling to the kids gathered up to him.

Well
Gee
Whiz!

The Gospel of Luke from the Bible shares the most parables from Jesus. Over 24 parables (stories)—and 18 are only told in the Gospel of Luke!

See the symbol of the bull off to the right? That's the traditional symbol for the Gospel of Luke. See if you can look up what the other Gospels (Matthew, Mark, John) have as their symbols!
