

ELCA World Hunger's
40 DAYS of Giving

FEBRUARY 2020

26	27	28	29
Generous God, provide bread for the hungry, shelter for the homeless and protection for the vulnerable. Listen to the cries of all who are abused or imprisoned, or who suffer pain, anxiety or illness. Hear us, O God. Your mercy is great.	Today would be a good day to set a goal for your donation to ELCA World Hunger as part of 40 Days of Giving. That goal might be a specific dollar amount or one of the ideas shown throughout this calendar. Write it down and refer back to it throughout the season.	Through ELCA World Hunger, our church supports work in areas related to health care, income generation, food security, clean water and education — addressing the root causes of hunger and poverty. Learn more about our approach at ELCA.org/Hunger .	"Be with us through this season, Lord, and all our earthly days, that when the final Easter dawns, we join in heaven's praise." ELW 319, "O Lord, Throughout These Forty Days"

1 Read today's Gospel, Matthew 4:1-11.	2 Explore what hope means in Lent with ELCA World Hunger in this week's study, "Safety and Stability."	3 "I will never stop dreaming about my future." What is your hope for your future? For the future of your community? The world?	4 According to World Bank estimates, 736 million people live in extreme poverty, on less than $1.90 per day. That's 10.7% of the population. With a gift of $2 a day, you can make a significant impact on hunger and poverty in our world.	5 God of the wilderness, we pray for creation. Show your glory in deserts and on mountaintops. Nourish gardens and orchards and bless those who tend them. Forgive us for our desire to dominate creation instead of serving as faithful stewards and caretakers. Hear us, O God. Your mercy is great.	6 "You shall eat in plenty and be satisfied, and praise the name of the Lord your God, who has dealt wondrously with you. And my people shall never again be put to shame" (Joel 2:26).	7 "When through the waters winds our path, around us pain, around us death: deep calls to deep, a saving breath, and found beside us faithfully there is the love of God." ELW 699, "In Deepest Night"
8 Read today's Gospel, John 3:1-7 or Matthew 17:1-9.	9 As church, we work and hope to be fed spiritually and physically. Read more about what this means for us in this week's study, "Livelihoods."	10 "My life has changed from the worst to the better and there is a bright future for me and my children." What does it mean to "hunger"?	11 A woman may have the dream and skills to start her own small business, but with little savings or access to credit, getting started can be a challenge. A gift of $125 can fund a microloan , which can be just what a woman needs to start her business, creating a steady source of income and helping her family overcome poverty.	12 God of rebirth, empower your church throughout the world to be a voice of hope for those who fear judgment or condemnation. Assure us of your faithfulness and give us confidence to proclaim your salvation for all. Hear us, O God. Your mercy is great.	13 "Let them give thanks to you, Lord, for your steadfast love and your wonderful works for all people. For you satisfy the thirsty soul and fill the hungry with good things" (Psalm 107:8-9).	14 "Longing for food, many are hungry. Longing for water, many still thirst. Make us your bread, broken for others, shared until all are fed. Christ, be our light!" ELW 715, "Christ, Be Our Light"
15 Read today's Gospel, John 4:5-42.	16 "Our Lenten journey continues, in repentance for the sin of gender injustice and in hope for the just world God is creating in our midst." Learn more in this week's study, "Justice for All."	17 "The program has given a sense of joy, and fulfillment that I can give hope to the hopeless girls who are being oppressed." What story of a woman leader in the Bible inspires you?	18 Worldwide, girls are far less likely than boys to be enrolled in school. A gift of $40 to ELCA World Hunger can help a family with school fees and uniforms , eliminating the difficult choice parents must make about which children go to school and which ones stay home. When you educate a girl, you help open a world of opportunity for her future.	19 God of living water, protect from pollution or misuse all rivers, lakes, oceans and streams. Bless the work of those who dig wells and those who advocate for access to clean water, that all people and animals have enough to drink. Hear us, O God. Your mercy is great.	20 "For the Lord your God is God of gods and Lord of lords, the great God, mighty and awesome, who is not partial and takes no bribe, who executes justice for the orphan and the widow, and who loves the strangers, providing them food and clothing" (Deuteronomy 10:17-18).	21 "Lord, you give justice in all oppression, maintain the right, set prisoners free. You feed the hungry in your compassion; healing and life flow from your tree. Happy are all who hope in God, whose grace is rich and deep and broad!" ELW 877, "Praise the Almighty!"
22 Read today's Gospel, John 9:1-41.	23 "The hope fostered in Lent invites us to see as God sees, to give ourselves over in hope and trust to the role God has called us to play." Read this week's study, "Leadership."	24 "When I sit at the table at Farming Hope's restaurant in San Francisco (Manny's), if I open my eyes, I see communion exactly as Jesus of Nazareth intended it to be — friends, eating intentionally ... we're all welcome." Where did you learn what it means to be a leader?	25 Millions of Americans struggle to get enough to eat. Whether you're looking for a refuge from the streets or a little extra help to get by, a warm meal and a seat at the table can go a long way. A gift of $100 to ELCA World Hunger can help feed 50 people at a soup kitchen.	26 God of insight, empower us to care for the land and all living things that dwell in it and beneath it. Provide rich soil for crops to grow. Bring rain to lands suffering drought. Protect hills and shorelines from damage caused by erosion. Hear us, O God. Your mercy is great.	27 "All who believed were together and had all things in common; they would sell their possessions and goods and distribute the proceeds to all, as any had need. Day by day, as they spent much time together in the temple, they broke bread at home and ate their food with glad and generous hearts, praising God and having the goodwill of all the people" (Acts 2:44-47a).	28 "Toda la tierra espera al Salvador y el surco abierto, la obra del Señor; es el mundo que lucha por la libertad, reclama justicia y busca la verdad." ELW 266, "Toda la Tierra" "All earth is hopeful, the Savior comes at last! Furrows lie open for God's creative task: this, the labor of people who struggle to see how God's truth and justice set everybody free." ELW 266, "All Earth Is Hopeful"
29 Read today's Gospel, John 11:1-45.	30 "Even as we journey with Christ toward the cross on Good Friday, even as drought, death, hunger and poverty continue to confront our communities, God is at work in, through and among us and our neighbors, breathing new life just when we think all is lost." Read more in this week's study, "Renewal of Earth."	31 "It has helped me to be more committed to volunteering in the community and the church." What steps can your church, community or family take to care for creation?					 ELCA World Hunger Evangelical Lutheran Church in America God's work. Our hands.
