

Did'ja Know?

People have used sheep for their wool for thousands of years. Wool can be itchy to wear, but it sure is warm!

Color That Stuff

Add spring colors to the sheep and lambs grazing in the field. Draw in some flowers, too!

The Season of EASTER

3rd Sunday of Easter
John 21:1-19

Jesus told Peter to "feed my sheep."

Did Jesus mean *real* sheep, or people? What do you think?

Jesus' friends hadn't seen him in a while. One day, they decided to go fishing, but they weren't catching anything.

"Try the other side of the boat!" called a stranger from the shore.

"That's weird," thought Peter. "But okay." They did what the stranger said and suddenly their nets were full of fish. Peter knew right then that the stranger was Jesus.

"Woo hoo!" he cried, and jumped into the lake to swim to Jesus.

After a wonderful roasted fish breakfast, Jesus asked, "Peter, do you love me?"

Peter said, "Of course! You know I do!"

"If you love me, you will take care of my sheep—all God's beloved children."

"Sounds like a big responsibility," Peter said. "Fishing seems easier. But I do love you. So I'll do it."

On The Road

Next time you take a road trip, try to spot a farm or ranch that raises sheep. Lots of times you'll see them out in the pastures grazing on grass! Ah—the life of a sheep!
