

Did'ja Know?

"Inner peace" is something that some people make it their life's goal to find. Monks and nuns throughout the world dedicate their lives to peace—both personally and for others.

Color That Stuff

In the Bible, the Holy Spirit is often imagined as a bird, many times a dove. But you can think of different birds kinda like the Holy Spirit too!

The Season of EASTER

6th Sunday of Easter
John 14:23-29

"It's almost time for me to leave you," Jesus told his friends.

Peter felt so sad. "What are we going to do without you?"

Jesus smiled. "I'm not leaving you alone," he said.

"What do you mean?" asked Peter.

"God's Holy Spirit lives in the whole world. When I leave, the Spirit is going to come and live in you in a very special way."

Peter frowned. "I don't understand."

"That's okay," said Jesus. "You will. The Holy Spirit will help you see and share God's love and truth with the world."

The Holy Spirit still lives in each and every one of us today. The Spirit helps us believe in God, and makes us want to go out and show love to God and to all people in everything we do!

Peace

When people get along. Also means when you feel still and right inside yourself.

Fun Stuff

Maze Time!

Help the disciples think through and follow Jesus' instructions.

Draw your own birds below!

TICTACTOE

FINISH

Try It At Home

Feed the birds! With an adult helper, set out bird food for the wild birds in your neighborhood. Get binoculars and see if you can identify which types of birds visit.

Special Task Force

See how many people you can say this phrase to after worship today: "God is love!" Can you remind more than 10 people? How about 25? 100?
