

Did'ja Know?

Generally, some of the happiest people in the world live in countries where it's hard for them to collect things like many of us do in the west.

Color That Stuff

Draw the happiest faces you can think of into these two characters. What makes them happy, do you think?

Sundays After Pentecost

July 31, 2022
8th Sunday
After Pentecost
Luke 12:13-21

Stuff
Stuff
Stuff

Two brothers were arguing about money. So Jesus told a story. "A rich man had so much stuff he didn't know what to do with it. Instead of sharing it, he built great big barns to store it. The rich man said to himself, 'I have all I will ever need. Now I can sit back and enjoy a long life where I don't have to work.' But God said, 'Silly man. Tonight you will die and all that money won't matter.'"

The brothers got very quiet. "Wow," one said finally. "That's a sad story."

"Yes," Jesus said. "Life is so much better when we live for God and other people instead of money."

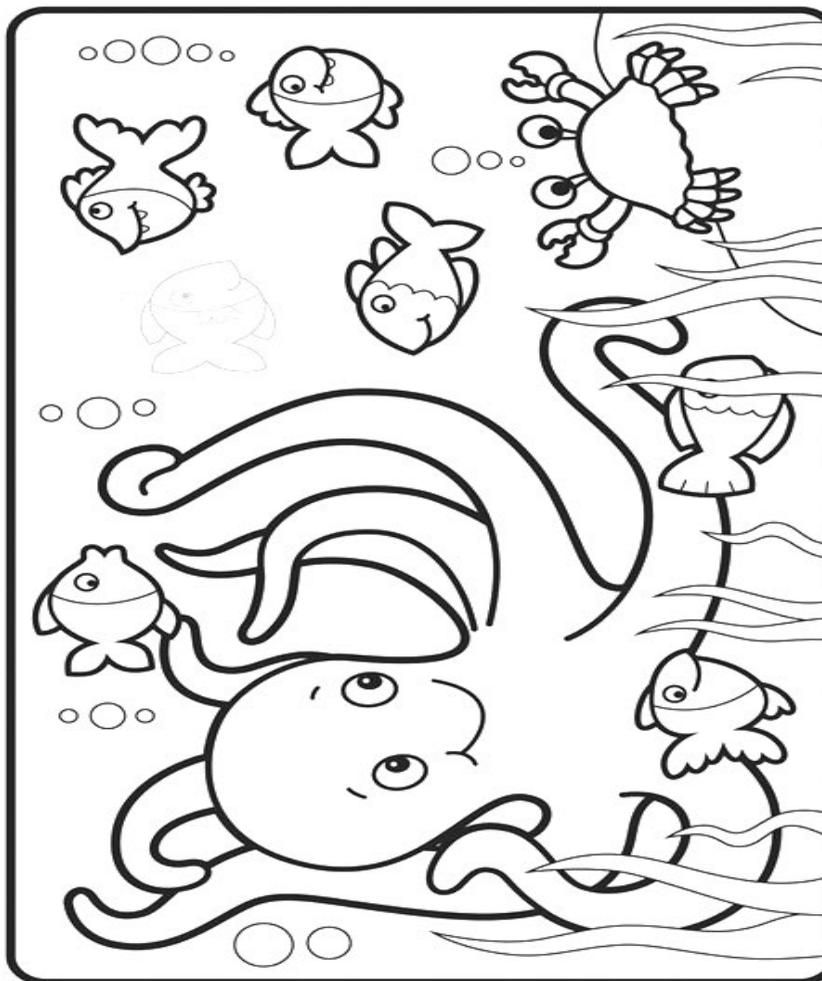

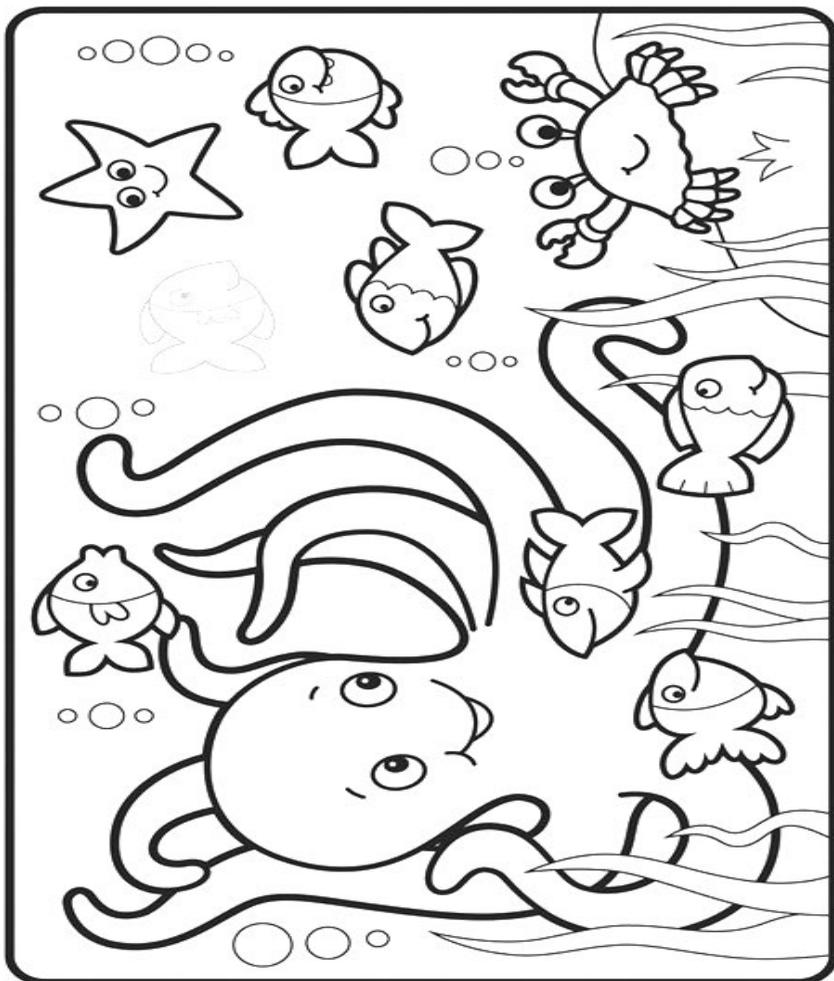

Contentment

Being happy with what you have.

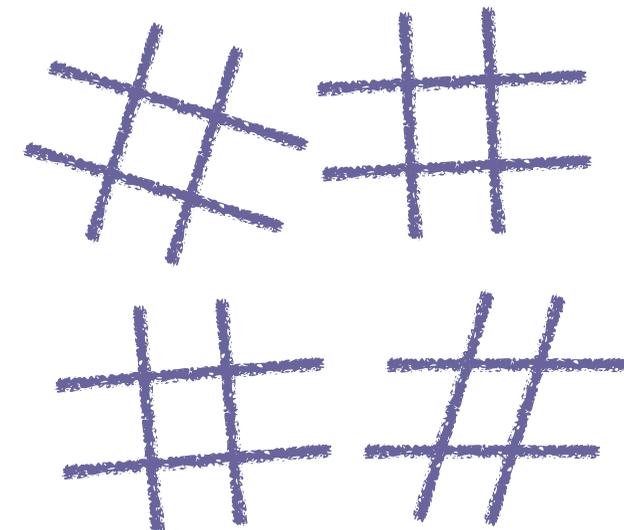

Spot the Differences

The octopus and the fishes are content exactly the way God made them. Can you spot 10 differences in the two pictures?

TICTACTOE

Try It At Home

Clean out your room and gather some things you can give away to a local donation center like Goodwill. You might be surprised how giving away stuff makes you feel good!

Special Task Force

Screen time can be so much fun! Sometimes, it starts to take over our lives though. This week, try limiting your screen time to less than 1 hour each day. Or try cutting it out completely, just for a week! See what happens. How do you think you'll spend your time?