

Did'ja Know?

A person's identity (who they are) comes from many places: a family, themselves, and other people too (including God).

Color That Stuff

Draw your face into the blank. Then, write below words you think describe yourself.

Who am I? I am . . .

Sundays After Pentecost

August 14, 2022
10th Sunday
After Pentecost
Luke 12:49-56

Jesus was frustrated with the people. They wanted him to magically make everything better.

"Will you bring peace, Jesus?" someone asked.

Jesus shook his head. "No. If you follow me, it won't be peaceful."

Another person said, "But following you is about loving others, right?"

"Yes," Jesus said, "but that isn't easy. I am telling you to live in a new way. Following me means changing. It means seeing the truth. It means going against what people are used to. Other people may not like it. They might get angry with you for following me. Even your own mom or dad or sister or brother."

A woman said, "That sounds scary."

Jesus nodded. "It is. But God is with you. And bringing God's love into the world is amazing. The hard work is worth it."

Compromise

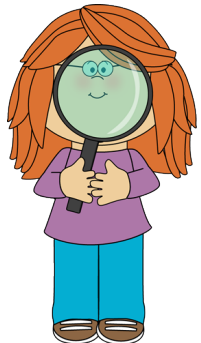

An agreement where both sides give up something, but gain too.

Special Task Force

Jesus loves you and cares for you! Jesus also cares for all the people in the world, too. This week, try to think of all the different states, countries, and other places where people live. Pray for the people in that place, that they might feel God's loving care for them.
