THE STORY

(Reader): Our story and God's story continues today with a reading from Matthew chapter 9 verses 9-13 and 18-26.

Al - le - lu - ia. Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of e - ter - nal life. Al - le - lu - ia. Al - le - lu - ia.

(Reader): As Jesus was walking along, he saw a man called Matthew sitting at the tax booth; and he said to him,

(Side 1): “Follow me.”

(Reader): And he got up and followed him. And as he sat at dinner in the house, many tax collectors and sinners came and were sitting with him and his disciples. When the Pharisees saw this, they said to his disciples,

(Side 2): “Why does your teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners?”

(Reader): But when he heard this, he said,

(ALL): “Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. Go and learn what this means, ‘I desire mercy, not sacrifice.’ For I have come to call not the righteous but sinners.”

(Reader): While he was saying these things to them, suddenly a leader of the synagogue came in and knelt before him, saying,

(Side 1): “My daughter has just died; but come and lay your hand on her, and she will live.”

(Reader): And Jesus got up and followed him, with his disciples. Then suddenly a woman who had been suffering from hemorrhages for twelve years came up behind him and touched the fringe of his cloak, for she said to herself,

(Side 2): “If I only touch his cloak, I will be made well.”

(Reader): Jesus turned, and seeing her he said,

(Side 1): “Take heart, daughter; your faith has made you well.”

(Reader): And instantly the woman was made well. When Jesus came to the leader's house and saw the flute players and the crowd making a commotion, he said,

(Side 2): "Go away; for the girl is not dead but sleeping."

(Reader): And they laughed at him. But when the crowd had been put outside, he went in and took her by the hand, and the girl got up. And the report of this spread throughout that district.

(Reader): Stay tuned for the continuing saga that is our story and God's story.

(ALL): Thanks be to God.

The Feast

Setting the Table the children lead us as we sing together:

O Come Lord Jesus be our Guest and let these gifts to us be blest. All praise to God who is our bread, may all the world be clothed and fed.

Thanksgiving at the Table

The Lord is with you

And also with you

Lift up your hearts!

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give God thanks and praise.

As we gather in this place, we remember, that in the night when Jesus was betrayed by his best friends, he took bread. He blessed it and broke it and gave it to these same friends saying, "Take and eat. This is my body given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup, blessed it and gave it for all to drink saying, "This is the new covenant, the new promise, for the forgiveness of sins. Do this for the remembrance of me." Lord, remember us in your kingdom and teach us to pray

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread. Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us.
Lead us not into temptation
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power,
and the glory
forever and forever. Amen.

This is Christ's table. It's a table of love and welcome. It's a table of fellowship with the poor and communion with the earth.

So, come, those of you with great faith and those of you who wish you had more. Come, those of you who have tried to follow Jesus and those of you who have failed. Come, those of you who depend on this meal for your lives, and those of you for whom it is a strange thing.

These are the gifts of God for the people of God.
