The Word

(Reader): Our story and God's story continues today with two readings. You are invited to follow along in your Bibles for our first lesson from the Book of Job chapter 19 verses 23-27a.

- 23 "O that my words were written down!
O that they were inscribed in a book!
24 O that with an iron pen and with lead
they were engraved on a rock forever!
25 For I know that my redeemer lives
and that in the end he will stand upon the earth;
26 and after my skin has been destroyed,
then in my flesh I shall see God,
27<sup>a</sup> whom I shall see on my side,
and my eyes shall behold, and not another."

(Reader): Here ends the first reading. Our second lesson is from the Gospel of Luke chapter 20: 27-38. You are invited to stand in body or in spirit as we sing to welcome the Gospel.

Gospel Acclamation

The assembly stands to welcome the gospel.

S171a

Al - le - lu - ia. Lord, to whom

Optional introduction

shall we go? You have the words of e - ter - nal life.

Al - le - lu - ia.

(Reader): Some Sadducees, who deny that there's a resurrection, came to Jesus and asked, "Teacher, Moses wrote for us that if a man's brother dies leaving a widow but no children, the brother must marry the widow and raise up children for his brother. Now there were seven brothers. The first man married a woman and then died childless. The second and then the third brother married her. Eventually all seven married her, and they all died without leaving any children. Finally, the woman died too. In the resurrection, whose wife will she be? All seven were married to her."

Jesus said to them, "People who belong to this age marry and are given in marriage. But those who are considered worthy to participate in that age, that is, in the age of the resurrection from the dead, won't marry nor will they be given in marriage. They can no longer die, because they are like angels and are God's children since they share in the resurrection. Even Moses demonstrated that the dead are raised—in the passage about the burning bush—when he speaks of the Lord as the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.

(ALL): He isn't the God of the dead but of the living. To him they are all alive."

(Reader): Stay tuned for the continuing saga that is our story and God's story

(ALL): Thanks be to God.

The Feast

Setting the Table the children lead us as we say together:

Gracious God,
we thank you for the food before us;
the family beside us;
the love between us;
and your presence among us.
Amen.

Thanksgiving at the Table

The Lord is with you

And also with you

Lift up your hearts!

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give God thanks and praise.

As we gather in this place, we remember, that in the night when Jesus was betrayed by his best friends, he took bread. He blessed it and broke it and gave it to these same friends saying, "Take and eat. This is my body given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup, blessed it and gave it for all to drink saying, "This is the new covenant, the new promise, for the forgiveness of sins. Do this for the remembrance of me." Lord, remember us in your kingdom and teach us to pray:

The Lord's Prayer (Leader): Our Creator, our Mother,

(ALL): Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us...Lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

This is Christ's table. It's a table of love and welcome. It's a table of fellowship with the poor and communion with the earth. So, come, those of you with great faith and those of you who wish you had more. Come, those of you who have tried to follow Jesus and those of you who have failed. Come, those of you who depend on this meal for your lives, and those of you for whom it is a strange thing.

The gifts of God are... (ALL): Free

Free indeed. And all are welcome to receive the sacrament.
