We are called by Jesus to love God and one another, serving everyone with no strings attached. At River of Hope, we welcome people of every ethnicity, age, gender expression or identity, sexual orientation, marital status, political perspective, physical and mental ability, or socioeconomic position. Wherever you are on your journey of faith, wherever you are in life (herbivore, carnivore, allergic to church, snarky, cranky)...you are fully welcome here. We mean it! You are a beloved and unique child of God. Come gather for worship and prayer, to study God's Word, to embrace the work of racial equity, social and economic justice, and environmental care. Together we are called to go out and transform lives through Jesus Christ.

Matthew 10:40-42

[Jesus said to the twelve:] 40 "Whoever welcomes you welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes the one who sent me. 41 Whoever welcomes a prophet in the name of a prophet will receive a prophet's reward, and whoever welcomes a righteous person in the name of a righteous person will receive the reward of the righteous, 42 and whoever gives even a cup of cold water to one of these little ones in the name of a disciple—truly I tell you, none of these will lose their reward."

From The Desk of Pastor Hans

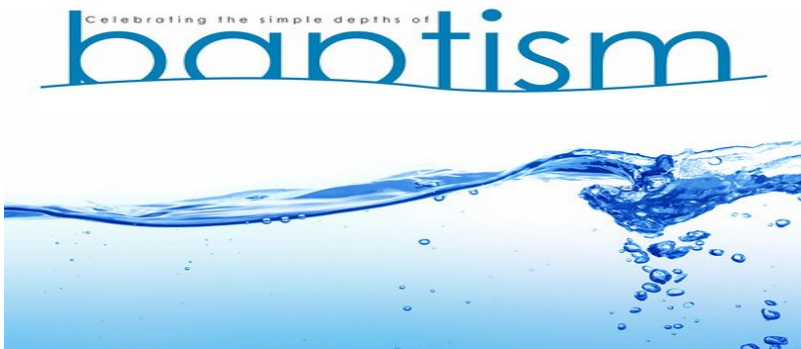

Greetings River of Hopeful people!

This week I was at Camp of the Cross looking out over a large body of water, Lake Sakakawea. I am grateful for a church community that is supportive of children, as well as experiences that support their faith formation. This Sunday some of the students at camp this week join others to help lead worship.

I brought back a little bit of water from camp with me to worship today, and perhaps you brought some water from your tap or from a lake or stream nearby. At the beginning of worship, we will pour water that you brought into the baptismal font as we remember our own baptism and the goodness of creation.

Also, a reminder that coffee and treats will be substituted today with a simple lunch available after worship preceding the Mark Charles author event.

River of Hope wishes to acknowledge and honor the Wahpekute (pronounced – “wah-PEH-koo-tay”) people upon whose ancestral homelands we gather for worship this morning, as well as all our Indigenous siblings who have and continue to care for this place – this land – and call it their home.
